

NEW TITLES FOR AGE 7+

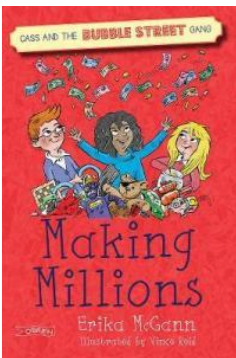

Greta Zargo and the Death Robots from Outer Space

A. F. Harrold

In a nutshell: zany, comic adventure with added alien invasion Greta Zargo is an unusual 11-year-old. An orphan she's lived on her own since the age of 8 thanks to an unfortunate but...

Format: Paperback

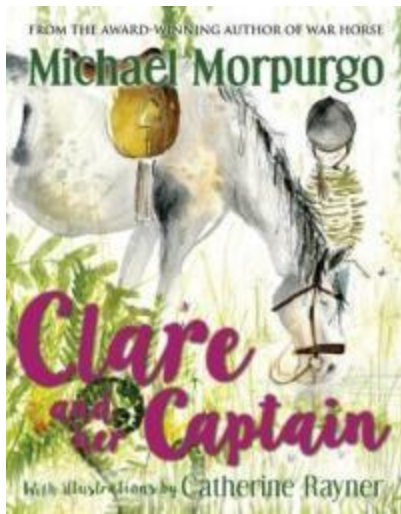

Making Millions

Erika McGann

In this, the second book in this fun and friendly series, Cass and her friends in the Bubble Street Gang are back! Just as Cass begins to investigate the new boy in school (who just happens to be invisible

Format: Paperback

Clare and her Captain

Michael Morpurgo

Award-winning Michael Morpurgo is always at his best when writing about the countryside and the animals in it.

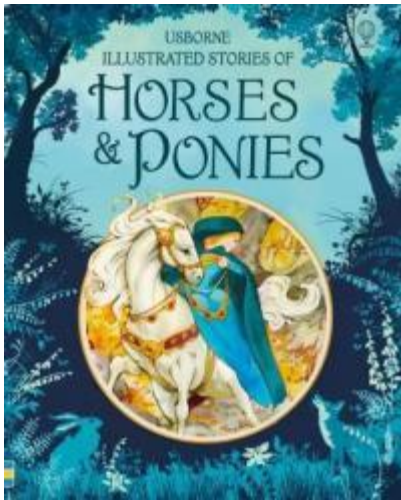

Format: Paperback

Isadora Moon Goes on a School Trip

Harriet Muncaster

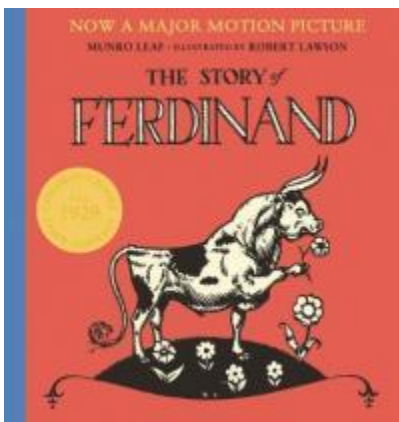

In a nutshell: half-vampire, half-fairy, Isadora makes a new friend Lively, told in short chapters and filled with illustrations this appealing series is perfect for newly independent readers. They'll certainly be very taken with the eponymous Isadora: daughter of...

Illustrated Stories of Horses and Ponies

Natasha Kuricheva

Beautifully produced and gorgeously illustrated, this is an excellent story collection. Each tale features a horse or pony, and quite often the human hero is a young girl, brave, clever and good-hearted. Each story is just the right length for...

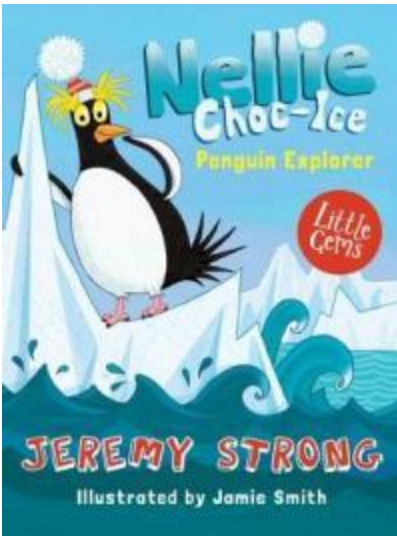

The Story of Ferdinand

Munro Leaf

The US classic picture book about a bull who would rather sit under the cork tree and smell the flowers than fight in the bullring makes a welcome re-appearance in this...

Format: Paperback

Nellie Choc-Ice, Penguin Explorer

Jeremy Strong

Interest Age 5-8 | In a nutshell: crowd-pleasing penguin story, perfect for newly independent readers Jeremy Strong is a comedy genius, and this his new book for Barrington Stoke's Little Gems series will have readers in stitches.