

Year 6 Home Learning – Friday 27th March

- One of the ingredients needed to make dynamite is peanuts.
- The entire world's population could fit inside Los Angeles.
- The world's most densely populated island is the size of two football fields.

MATHS

Login to sats companion and go to the reasoning maths test set by your maths teacher. Submit your answers.

Have a go at the maths song challenge by THE WANTED at the link:
<http://www.mathematicshed.com/chris-moyles-musical-maths-shed.html#>

ENGLISH

Login to sats companion and go to the reading task(s) set by your English teacher. Submit your answers.

If you like, go to the kahoot website and take part in the quiz challenge. It will remain open until 9pm.

www.kahoot.it/ use the game pin 0561793

Choose your team/player name after a film character. Remember others will see this when they play so may sure it's appropriate!

We will let you know the winner through class dojo on Friday evening. Good luck!

HISTORY - The Mayan Civilisation

Go to the link

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zq6svcw>

Watch the videos called an introduction to the ancient Maya and what was life like for the ancient Mayas?

Write or type an information page to show what you have learnt about the Mayan civilisation. This is only the introduction. You will find out more about this ancient civilisation.

If you like, you can email it to your teacher:

CGibson@ashfield-jun.cumbria.sch.uk

DGaskell@ashfield-jun.cumbria.sch.uk