

We are learning to identify conjunctions and clauses. 1

Name:

Date:

Underline or highlight the conjunction in each sentence. Once you have done this, explain how you know it was a conjunction.

1. Theseus killed the beastly Minotaur and was hailed a hero.
2. Hercules knew he would succeed in killing the lion, even though it was a fearsome creature.
3. Zeus knew his lightening bolt would burn the trees on the mountain, but he threw it anyway.
4. Hercules was the son of the God Zeus, as well as a mere mortal.
5. Zeus was the leader of the Gods because he was the King.
6. Hera was also an important Goddess as she was the Queen.
7. The Greeks built a temple for Hera as they wanted to worship her.
8. The Parthenon is built on top of a hill, therefore it can be seen for miles around.
9. The Athenians wanted to build magnificent buildings due to the fact that they loved art and architecture.
10. The Temple of Zeus was both humongous and magnificent.

We are learning to identify conjunctions and clauses. 2

Name:

Date:

- Underline or highlight the conjunction in each sentence.
- Underline or highlight each clause in the sentence.
- Make a key.

1. Theseus killed the menacing Minotaur, therefore was hailed a hero.
2. Hercules knew he would succeed in killing the Nemean lion, despite the fact that it was a fearsome creature.
3. Zeus knew his lightening bolt would burn the trees on the mountain, however he threw it anyway.
4. Hercules was the son of the God Zeus, as well as a mere mortal.
5. Zeus was the leader of the Ancient Greek Gods, as he was their King.
6. Hera was also an important Goddess because she was the Queen of Gods and Goddesses.
7. The Greeks built a magnificent temple for the Goddess Hera because they wanted to worship her.
8. The Parthenon is built on the top of a large hill, consequently it can be seen for miles around.
9. The Athenians wanted to build magnificent buildings because they loved art and architecture.
10. The temple is both humongous and magnificent.

We are learning to identify conjunctions and clauses. 3

Name:

Date:

- Make a key.
- Highlight the conjunction in each sentence.
- Underline each clause in the sentence.
- Highlight the verb and the subject of each sentence.

1. Theseus killed the menacing Minotaur, consequently he was hailed a hero.
2. Hercules knew he would be successful in killing the Nemean lion, even though it was a most fearsome creature.
3. Zeus knew his lightening bolt would burn the houses at the bottom of the mountain, nevertheless he still threw it.
4. Hercules was the son of the God Zeus, as well as a mere mortal.
5. Zeus was the leader of the Gods because he was the King.
6. Hera was also an important Goddess as she was the Queen of the Gods and Goddesses.
7. The Ancient Greeks decided to build a temple for Hera so that they could show their devotion to her.
8. The Parthenon is built on top of a hill, therefore it can be seen for miles around.
9. The Athenians wanted to build magnificent buildings due to the fact that they loved art and architecture.
10. The Greek's liked to build temples that were beautiful in addition to them being humongous.

