

Suggested Weekly Timetable
	Independent Computer activity
	Adult supported

	Wednesday	Activities
English	Spelling frame or SPaG.com 30 mins
	Comprehension 45 mins	Have you heard of Aesop's fables? Do you know any examples? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Research who Aesop was, when he lived and why he is remembered today. 2. Read through the examples of Aesop's fables (on sheet). 3. What do you think the moral of each story is? Today you will be using the internet to research some different fables. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 4. Now read through different fables online: http://www.umass.edu/aesop/fables.php http://www.aesops-fables.org.uk/ http://www.aesopfables.com/aesopsel.html Tomorrow you are to pick a fable and retell the story in your own words. You can change the story completely as long as the moral of the story is the same. Which fable do you think you would like to retell? Start to plan out your ideas.
Maths	TTRockstars 10 mins
	Maths learning & practice activity 45 mins	Greeks love a thinking puzzle. Have a go at today's maths: Pig maths and Areaquad maths
	Prodigy activity 10 mins

Topic	Geography, History or Science activity. 45 mins	When we talk about the culture of a country, we talk about religion, food, politics, literature, music, etc. Today you will be researching Greek culture. Pick one of the questions on the sheet and be as creative as you can to answer it, don't be shy! Make it really fun and interesting.
	Reading alone and with an adult	