

Blues in E Foundation Studies I - IV – Video Lesson Review

Hopefully, from the material looked at over the last few weeks, you will have a better understanding of the 12 Bar Blues in E chord progression and learned all the chords and scale shape looked at so far in the Foundation Studies series. This week we are going to review all of the material looked at so far and make sure that you are playing the music correctly, in particular the rhythms, by watching a series of video lessons covering the chords, scale, licks, solo and riffs played over the last five weeks. The links for each of the video lessons are:

Blues in E Foundation Studies I – <https://vimeo.com/415140192/d8e9da3266>

- Chords E7      A7      B7      E Minor Pentatonic Scale.

Blues in E Foundation Studies II – <https://vimeo.com/410646310/56ad464d38>

- 12 Bar Blues Progression – Order of the Chords

Blues in E Foundation Studies III – <https://vimeo.com/415141588/d029a7e6b0>

- Licks from the E Minor Pentatonic Scale, Solo and 12 Bar Blues Backing Track

Blues in E Foundation Studies IV – <https://vimeo.com/415144433/c8819f2534>

- Riff on the 12 Bar Blues in E.

Review all of the lessons we have looked at so far in this Blues in E Foundation Studies series outlined above while watching the . This will make sure that you are playing the rhythms correctly for the chords, licks, solo and riffs and then use the backing track at the end of Blues in E Foundation Studies III video to play your own solo over using the licks you have written.