English

Continuing with our work yesterday on speech, have a look at the sentences below. There are capital letters, question marks and speech marks missing. Can you correct the mistakes? You might even spot a homophone that has been used incorrectly too. Write each sentence out correctly in your home learning book.

Don't forget to write your date and aim:

Friday 29th January

Task 2

For a longer piece of writing this week, we'd like you to have a go at writing your own interview scene. You'll need to include some correctly punctuated speech as well as some description of the setting and characters.

PSHE

Today in PSHE, we'd like you to think about your dreams and goals. Have you had any successes in the past that you are proud of?

Thinking about what you have already achieved and what you are proud of can encourage you to keep working hard as you set new goals. Perhaps you have a swimming certificate or a trophy from a football game. Did you climb a mountain or go on a really long walk that you didn't think you'd be able to do?

Either look out a photograph or draw a picture to send us or send us a picture of you with your trophy or certificate.

- How did you feel at the time? Can you remember?
- What would you like to achieve next?
