The Storm

*The storm is a stampeding rhino, Dangerous and destructive.
It charges and hurtles across the landscape,
Like a gigantic, crumpled, grey bulldozer.
The air rumbles with the sound of its stamping feet,
It slashes the air and rips down trees with its razor-sharp horn.
With its giant hooves, it tramples over buildings , Completely untameable, it will stop for nobody.
Crashing, snorting and raging,
Clumsy, wild and furious.*
