

Galapagos Islands

A map of the Galapagos Islands archipelago, showing the main islands and surrounding smaller ones. Arrows point from text boxes to specific islands: Fernandina to the westernmost island, Isabela to the large island on the left, Floreana to the island south of Isabela, Santa Cruz to the central island, Plaza to the island east of Santa Cruz, Santa Fe to the island southeast of Santa Cruz, Espanola to the island south of Santa Cruz, and Genovesa to the small island north of Santa Cruz.

Fernandina

Small and large seeds, small insects on leaves, grubs found inside twigs, fruit and flying insects

Isabela

Small and large seeds, cacti, small insects on leaves, grubs found inside twigs, flying insects and fruit

Floreana

Small seeds, cacti, small insects on leaves, grubs found inside twigs, flying insects and fruit

Espanola

Small flying insects, cacti and small seeds

Genovesa

Large seeds, cacti, small flying insects

Santa Cruz

Small and large seeds, small insects on leaves, grubs found inside twigs, flying insects, fruit and cacti

Plaza

Small seeds and cacti

Santa Fe

Small flying insects and insects on leaves, small seeds and cacti